(b) use the Confidential Information only for, or in connection with, the Permitted Purpose; and

(c) use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that any person to whom MDB passes any Confidential Information (unless disclosed under paragraph 2(c) below) complies with the provisions of these Terms of Confidentiality as if that person were subject to these Terms of Confidentiality.

2. Permitted disclosure –MDB may, however, disclose Confidential Information:

(a) to the MDB’s officers, directors, employees, professional advisers and services providers (including, rating agencies and calculation agents) to the extent necessary for, or in connection with, the Permitted Purpose and to its auditors;

(c) (i) where requested or required by any court of competent jurisdiction or any competent judicial, governmental, supervisory or regulatory body or administrative order, or (ii) where required by its statutory documents or in accordance with the relevant treaties; and

(d) with the Financial Intermediary’s prior written consent, not to be unreasonably withheld.

3. Notification of Required or Unauthorised Disclosure – MDB will (to the extent permitted by law and by its statutory documents) inform the Financial Intermediary of the full circumstances of any disclosure under paragraph 2(c) or upon becoming aware that Confidential Information has been disclosed in breach of the Terms of Confidentiality.
4. Termination – The Terms of Confidentiality will cease to apply to Confidential Information on the earlier of (a) the date of the signature of the Proposed Transaction containing a confidentiality undertaking in the same or similar terms as the Terms of Confidentiality, and (b) two years following the date on which such Confidential Information was provided to MDB.
5. Definitions – In these Terms of Confidentiality:
  - “Confidential Information” means any information marked as confidential relating to the Financial Intermediary and the Proposed Transaction, provided to MDB by a Financial Intermediary or any of its affiliates or advisers, in whatever form, and includes any document, electronic file or any other way of representing or recording information which contains or is derived or copied from such information but excludes information that (a) is or becomes public knowledge (other than as a result of any breach of the Terms of Confidentiality) or (b) is not marked as confidential by such Financial Intermediary or (c) is known by MDB before the date the information is disclosed to MDB by such Financial Intermediary or any of its affiliates or advisers or (d) is lawfully obtained by MDB, other than from a source which is connected with such Financial Intermediary and which, in either case, as far as MDB is aware, has not been obtained in violation of, and is not otherwise subject to, any obligation of confidentiality; and
